LIFE INSURANCE.

A Statement of Facts.

Northumberland county, insured his life in the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, for the sum of one thousand dol-lars. On the 9th of August, 1900, he died and in two weeks after papers showing proof of death were handed to Messrs. Hughlett & Efford, the special agents in this section, for transmission to the home office in New York, they handed me the check for one thousand dollars in full payment of the policy. I do most heart-ily commend the promptness of this com-pany and its polite and attentive agents, Messrs. Hughlett & Efford, to any who think of taking out policies of Life Inmrance which I regard as the best in-
